THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By M. C. GALLAWAY & Co. MEMPHIS, SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1868. (Volume Eleven---Number 79.

THE DAILY AVALANCHE.

The White Man's Platform.

I hold that this Government was made on the white basis, by white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity forever, and should be administered by white men, and none others. I do not believe that the Almighty made the negro capable of self government.—Stephen A. Douglas.

Hear President LINCOLN in reply:

I AM NOT, NOR EVER HAVE BEEN, IN FAVOR OF MAKING VOTERS OR JURORS OF NEGROES nor of qualifying them to hold office, nor intermarrying them with white people, and I will say, in addition to this, that there is a PHYSICAL DIFFERENCE between the white and black race, which, I believe, will forever forbid the two races living together on terms of social and political equality—and, inasmuch as they cannot so live, while they do remain together, there must be a position of superior and inferior, and I, as much as any other man, am in favor of having the SUPERIOR POSITION ASSIGNED TO THE WHITE RACE.

Two years before the death of DANIEL WEBSTER he said:

"IF THESE IMPERTINENT Fanatics and Abolitionists ever get the power into their own hands, they will override the Constitution, set the Supreme Court at defiance change and make Laws to suit themselves, lay violent hands on those who differ with them in opinion or dare question their fidelity; and finally, bankrupt the country and deluge it with blood."

On September 2, 1843, twenty-five years ago, HENRY CLAY said:

The agitation of the question in the free States will first destroy all harmony, and finally lead to disunion—perpetuate war—the extinction of the African race—ultimate military despotism.

But the great aim and object of your tract should be to arouse the laboring classes of the free States against Abolition. Depict the consequences to them of immediate emancipation. The slaves being free, would be dispersed throughout the Union; they would enter into competition with the free labor; with the American, the Irish, the German; reduce his wages, be confounded with him, and affect his moral and social standing. And as the ultras go both for Abolition and amalgamation, show that their object is to unite in marriage the laboring white man and the laboring black woman, to reduce the white laboring man to the despised and degraded condition of the black man.

I would show their opposition to Colonization. Show its humane, religious and patriotic aim. That they are to separate those whom God had separated. Why do the Abolitionists oppose Colonization? To keep and amalgamate together the two races, in violation of God's will, and to keep the blacks here, that they may interfere with, degrade and debase the laboring whites. Show that the British Government is co-operating with the Abolitionists, for the purpose of dissolving the Union, etc. You can make a powerful article, that will be felt in every extremity of the Union. I am perfectly satisfied it will do great good. Let me hear from you on this subject.

George W. George, of Cincinnati, committed suicide at the Bates House, Indianapolis, Tuesday night, by shooting himself in the head with a derringer pistol.

Mr. Anthony Gennett, of Nashville, while laboring under temporary aberration of mind, disappeared from his home Tuesday, and has not since been heard of.

Pius IX. has given his portrait to Mr. Peabody with a Latin quotation containing an eulogium on benevolence, written with his Holiness' own hand.

A foul outrage was committed on a little white girl by a brute of a negro, near Port Hudson, a few days ago. He was arrested by negroes, and put in jail.

An epitaph in a rural graveyard of Pennsylvania reads thus: "Here lies Bernard Lightfoot, who was accidentally killed in the forty-fifth year of his age. This monument was erected by his grateful family."

John Jones and his son were setting a partridge trap in the woods, in Cumberland county, Virginia, a few days ago, his son having a chicken in his arms, when Robert Meadow, who was hunting turkeys, saw the chicken's head, and not seeing Jones and his son, shot the chicken and killed it in the boy's arms. Jones and his son were wounded but very slightly.

A verminous crowd of lazy, indigent, ragged, dirty, greasy, insolent, ignorant, pox-pitted, slab lipped, spoon eyed, knock kneed, blubber footed, godless, grubless, hatless niggers haunt the galleries of the Little Rock capitol, where in former times was arrayed the beauty, grace and intelligence of that noble, but fallen State.

Another rebel outrage: Last Tuesday, at Fayetteville, a mob of forty or fifty thousand Fort Pillow rebels released from arrest a desperado who had distilled several hundred hogsheads of illegal whisky, and had refused to sell out at cost to a Loyal League. The three revenue officers were fired on about an hour, and their clothing was cut all into shreds by bullets, but, like the three children of Israel in the fiery furnace, they had not a hair singed. The mob then drank up the whisky, without offering any to the revenue officers, and dispersed.

The escape of Colonel Grenfel from the Dry Tortugas took place on the night between the 6th and 7th of March last. The Colonel managed to take with him three other prisoners and one of the soldiers who were on guard at the time, being the one who was the sentinel in charge of the boats connected with the post, whilst he was on guard. It is supposed that the Colonel in some way managed to bribe the guard to desert, and to aid him and the other three prisoners to escape. As soon as the escape was discovered, the United States steamer Bibb was sent out in search of the fugitives, but she failed to find any trace of them. On the night of the escape it was blowing a gale, and as the boat which they took was but small and in bad condition, it is probable that they all perished.

BRISTOL, TENNESSEE, April 7, 1868.

EAST TENNESSEE LOYALTY.

Loyalty in East Tennessee is not loyalty to the State or to the United States, but loyalty to Brownlow and his treasonable clans. Even this loyalty is counted as naught unless it subserves the selfish and nefarious ends of those who are in power. He who fails to "throw high in the air his cap," shout success to Radicalism, indorse usurpation, lawlessness and open treason against the General Government—all with reference to the perpetuation of the power of that human monster, Brownlow, is denounced as a traitor; and the miserable scum who make up the Jacobins of the country are put upon his track by this smelling pink of political virtue, to murder or drive him from the State! But this week, and this leprosy of our once proud Tennessee, published a card over the signature, "Senior Editor," saying to the returned "rebels" that unless they ceased to question the constitutionality of the laws passed by the "Legislature," as well as their abuse of the "loyalists" of the country, that they would be severely and roughly handled; and even went so far as to indicate that these—these loyalists—would lay violent hands on them, and that such action would receive his sanction! This effort to produce disturbance and inaugurate a reign of terror, is an evidence of the decline of Radicalism, under his rule; for it has been but a few days since he issued a proclamation to the "trooly loil" of the State, calling upon them to put down the Ku-Klux Klan and all organizations looking to the subversion of Radicalism. Fortunately, these edicts and appeals, so far have produced no fruit. The prejudice against the negroes, among the "leaguers," is such as to cancel the force of the foolish old man's proclamations. He urges, in all these remarkable productions, the defence of the "loil" colored population. This is obnoxious to the most of Radicals in East Tennessee. They, very considerately, recognize in the fostering of the negro that they take the bread and meat from their own children's mouths. And from this cause many who have been earnest advocates of Radicalism, and endorsed negro suffrage, have withdrawn from the treasonable coil into which they had been ensnared. Along with these "withdrawals" comes an occasional slight exposition of Radical intrigue and corruption. The effect is healthy—contributing to public confidence and security.

THE WHISKY REBELLION.

In this "affair" there is incontestable evidence of the base and corrupt motives which prompt its issuance or publication of such sentiments as above alluded to. From the time Colonel Abernathy met with opposition in executing the revenue laws of the Government up to the present, no proclamation has been made, or a single article written, by the "Senior Editor," condemning the conduct of these "whisky rebels!" And notwithstanding it was known to the Radical functionaries of the county, as well as to his "loyal" Excellency, still, no steps were taken to vindicate the supremacy of the laws, or to aid in any manner in putting down this effort at rebellion; no appeals were made for the "gallant melish" to rub up their arms and save the character of the State. Not one! And why? Because these swindling whisky rebels were Loyal Leaguers, Simon Pure Radicals; Radicals whose fidelity to Brownlow and his corrupt co-workers is so unimpeachable, and whose treason and rebellion to the United States, could not be questioned.

Claiborne county, which lies adjacent to Cumberland Gap, some thirty miles from Morristown, the locality of the whisky "affair," is one of the altars of loyalty in this portion of the State. There is scarcely any of the "lost cause" in the county; and what few have dared to remain have been outraged by mobs and robbed of their property by the so-called courts! So little importance has been attached to the proper administration of justice, that crime has been encouraged, and to such an extent, that the representative of the county, who is a regular carpet-bag Radical, appealed to the Governor for troops, in order to put down lawlessness—lawlessness among the Leaguers, not rebels! But his Excellency was silent, while the Whig was loud in its praises of the good order prevalent throughout East Tennessee! Such has been the lying policy of the miserable organs of this treasonable faction since its inception as an organization in our midst. Justice, in the true sense of the word, is scouted, while murder and every species of lawlessness is commended and warmly applauded.

LATE OUTRAGES.

The outrages lately committed upon ministers of the gospel near Knoxville, and which were so severely criticised by the law abiding journals of the country, were pronounced by the organs of Radicalism as deeds worthy of emulation! The true cause of this persecution of Southern ministers and Southern people of this section is not altogether attributable to Brownlow, but to a set of adventurers who stand behind the curtain making the simple old tyrant the "cats' paw" for their infamous and mercenaric ends. The "set" to which we refer is a band of Northern Methodist political preachers, having as their leader the new aspirant to the governorship of the State, one T. H. Pearne, a so-called D. D., a broken down political hack from Oregon! He is the man who writes the senior's editorials, and keeps alive the animosity engendered by the late revolution. But for the addition of this class of reforming loyalists to our population where lawlessness and hatred exists, peace and tranquility, law and order, would prevail. These Puritan church robbing confiscators are the Pandora's box of all our troubles. It is for this class of begging vagabonds that his excellency pleads so earnestly in his late proclamation. It is towards them he would extend his gratitude—his charity, in the way of offices. But they will have to abandon their territory—will be forced to yield their ill-gotten plunder, as well as atone for the many outrages and wrongs which they have instigated. The law abiding element is gaining ground, as before indicated; and should Congress fail in their revolutionary designs East Tennessee will soon be redeemed from her present disgraceful status of disquiet and lawlessness.

PENDING ELECTIONS, CANDIDATES, ETC.

The office of Criminal Judge, for upper East Tennessee, created by a late act of the Legislature, is a fat position, to which not a few hungry lawyers aspire. Among these are Howard and Flagg, of Greenville, and Brown of Jonesboro. The two former are Radicals of the most approved order; the latter, conservative. Howard is the more prominent, as a Radical, and will receive the support of the leaguers. He is a man of no character, morally or intellectually—having been silenced from preaching, expelled from a Masonic fraternity, and very nigh from the bar! But these are considerations of recommendation to Radical support, so much are they in keeping with the old adage: "Birds of a feather will flock together." Flagg was Clerk of the Senate last term of the Legislature. He is a man of no legal ability. Brown is a gentleman of legal mind and literary cultivation, and would make a respectable Judge.

CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

Such was the base corruption and fraud practiced in the late elections in Washington and Sullivan counties, that the outraged parties have determined to have a thorough investigation of the entire election before permitting the claimants to the offices to be sworn in. The conduct of the candidates who were successful in securing a majority is said to be most reprehensible. Being the officers, by appointment, to hold the elections, they shaped the vote so as to secure their own election! All of them belong to Brownlow's school of "trooly loil."

KU-KLUX KLANS.

These ghostly monsters have made their appearance in this place. Since their first demonstration not a house has been broken into, nor a chicken stolen. Before, however, such outrages were of daily occurrence. The negroes now keep within doors after night, and can scarcely be induced to venture any distance from their cabins, lest they might meet with these "terrible avengers!" This morning, their placards were found posted at all public places in town, attracting no little attention. Virginia is full of the mysterious Klan, and enough in East Tennessee, to frighten the Radicals out of their wits.

CRAYON.

Henry Johnson, a negro who outraged a white woman, near Jacksonport, Arkansas, a few weeks since, has been sentenced to be hanged on the 24th instant.

The carpet baggers who went to attend the bogus Legislature at Little Rock, all put in their appearance with empty carpet bags, but they expect to return with them full.

The Mineral Springs

—AT—

RALEIGH, TENNESSEE

FOR SALE!

THE CELEBRATED RALEIGH MINERAL SPRINGS, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late County Seat of Shelby county, Tennessee, nine miles northeast of Memphis, and two miles from Wells' Station, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. These Springs are six in number, of various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every Summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure, from all quarters of the country. They are within a few steps of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which winds around the base of the eminence on which the village of Raleigh is situated, and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. Numerous remarkable cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at this health-inspiring retreat, and the present proprietor, Colonel J. M. COLEMAN, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been entirely given over medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh, rises to an eminence of pure air, and is as remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are in fine order, never failing, and are designated as follows:

MARBLE SPRING,
BOX SPRING,
MAGNOLIA SPRING,
ARSENIC SPRING,
SULPHUR SPRING,
FREESTONE SPRING.

The place has never been visited by epidemic of any kind, and peculiarly characteristic of its healthfulness is the longevity of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The Springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bowling Alley, Rustic Arbors, Reading Saloon, Gents' Bowling Alley, Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasiums, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

An analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronized. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish this end.

The elegant country mansion house and lot, residence of Colonel J. M. COLEMAN, is within a few yards of the Springs. The house is in first class order, contains ten rooms, and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced and ornamented with fine shade and fruit trees, and affords all necessary outhouses, cisterns, etc. It is midway between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade.

NATIONAL TELEGRAPH.

THE NATIONAL

TELEGRAPH COMPANY

A NEW enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The Stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country which the lines pass.

THE CAPITAL IS TO BE

$10,000,000

In 100,000 shares of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 PER SHARE

and this amount, is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued. This will give the Company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies throughout the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this Company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The Stockholders of this Company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other Company. The act of Congress under which this Company has been organized prohibits any transfer of the franchise granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE

One per cent of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent. is paid, until the entire Capital Stock shall have been subscribed.

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 Miles of Wire

Which will connect all the commercial centers and important places in the United States. This opinion rests upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY is organized under the laws of the State of New York, and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

President—GEORGE B. SENTER, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Vice President—ROBERT SQUIRES, of New York City.

Secretary—GEORGE B. WALLER, of New York City.

COMPANY'S OFFICE,

Nos. 64 and 66 Broadway, New York

A limited amount of the capital stock of this Company is allotted to this locality, and those having an opportunity, and subscribing, will be placed upon equal terms with its corporators, and will secure like interests in all franchises which have accrued, or may hereafter accrue to the Company from any and all sources.

Stock may now be subscribed in this Company at the Office of THE MERCANTILE AGENCY, R. G. DUN & CO., Room No. 5, Commercial Bank Building, corner Main and Madison streets, Memphis, Tenn.

EDITORIAL

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

SATURDAY, : : : APRIL 11, 1868

THE elections are progressing most flatteringly for the future of the country. As they come "rolling on," hope is inspired to plume her wing anew, and the sombre gloom of despair to disperse before a genial sunlight of a better day dawning. Even the name of GRANT to lend its influence has been found incapable of arresting the "second sober thought" of the people, at last alarmed at the strides of despotism which the last few months have developed. The Radical armies have been massed, through a complete and secret organization, and were deemed invincible, if not in numbers and discipline, and ambuscades and feints, by the flagitious enormities of frauds, but they have been met and overthrown by resolute and manly hearts, the force of the threatening wave thrown back, and Radical wrecks are now visible on the beach where proud navies were confidently expected to be moored. The black flag of Radicalism does not wave over Connecticut. With an increased vote of over 5,000, which was thought all sufficient for the purpose of defrauding the Democracy of that State in the re-election of their patriotic Governor, and overcome any defection in their own ranks, the Radicals encountered a signal and disastrous defeat. Throwing into the canvass their heaviest metal and guns of largest calibre, they "piled up the agony" and rung the changes upon the sympathy of Democracy with the Southern rebellion. All the bitter scenes of war were reproduced, and the coals raked up from the ashes of the past. The strong inclining of the Congress to the interests of the North, in taxing the cotton fields of the South, and removing the tax imposed upon the manufacturing interest, was duly expatiated upon. Even the reticence of GRANT was broken, and his conviction proclaimed of the necessity of the removal of the President to secure the public peace. But all were of no avail. The fraudulent votes introduced, as they had been in New Hampshire, failed of their object. The Democratic candidate for Governor doubled his majority of the preceding year, and the great expectations of the Radicals were doomed to disappointment. Thus has been settled the question that GRANT cannot carry Connecticut; and as the November election occurs on the same day in the several States, and every voter, therefore, will be required at home, it is altogether probable that New Hampshire will be unwilling to be hitched to his chariot. Has not Radicalism been routed in Michigan? What has become of that vaunted Constitution adopting negro suffrage, which the people of that State were called upon to ratify? The Radical leaders were confident, and challenged the strongest efforts of their Democratic adversaries to defeat it if they could. The white people of Michigan have refused to substitute a mongrel for a white man's Government; and have said, though Congress may impose such conditions on the South, the people of Michigan will not consent that it shall be made a part of their fundamental rule with their consent. Alas! do they not know that the policy which seeks to keep the South subservient, will eventually extend to the Northern States, and subject them to similar thraldom. Congress will permit no State action in contravention to its edicts. Overriding the Constitution and making that instrument subservient to its acts, it will impose negro suffrage upon any and every State, when it shall become its pleasure to do so. Things as monstrous have occurred, are occurring every day. The Northern States can only comprehend and appreciate the bitter ingredients of the cup the South has been drinking when the chalice is commended to their own lips. Michigan will not have negro suffrage—let her refuse Radical companionship, decline further assimilation with the Grand Army of the Republic, and array herself in the Democratic ranks to resist Congressional encroachments and usurpation. There are strong and striking symptoms of revolt in Iowa, although they may not culminate in a general uprising sufficient to throw off the incubus that rides and oppresses that young and vigorous State. Dubuque, that last year elected a mayor by two hundred and forty-six majority, this year is democratic by nearly five hundred. Keokuk has likewise gone democratic, and indications are strong that the people of that whole region have become disgusted with the reign of the unprincipled demagogues who are aiming to get full possession of the government, to subvert it to their own infernal purposes. Indiana is sending forth good news. Evansville has just elected a democratic mayor, by a decided majority over the brother of Governor Baker, and one of the most popular among the Radicals. For several years the Radicals have held a tight grip on the city. Ohio is doing wonderfully. Everywhere the gains are significant. In Cincinnati, the home of Pendleton, where the Radicals have had sway for years, the majority of thousands has been swept away, and the prize of office was strongly disputed at the municipal election, the Democrats succeeding beyond their most sanguine expectations. The portents are such as to render almost certain a Democratic victory in November. Even Radicalism was taught in Ohio, by CHASE, when Governor, to resist Federal encroachment, and the lesson has not been lost. The iniquitous proceedings against General GEORGE W. MORGAN, to oust him from his seat in Congress, to give it to his defeated opponent, COLUMBUS DELANA, will not "sink into the ground." They are tenacious of their State rights, and will not submit to negro equality, as they declared by their fifty thousand majority, when it was proposed for their acceptance. Ohio is pledged to the payment of the bonds in legal tender notes, and with her will go Illinois, whose local elections show large and unmistakable Democratic gains. St. Louis has shaken Radicalism until it is nearly speechless, and other parts of Missouri give strong assurances that the tethers of Radicalism are not strong enough to bind manly, resolute limbs. Louisville showed how stands Kentucky. There is not a speck of Radicalism left there. From every quarter we gather the highest hopes that the people will be true to themselves and their destiny, and will not bow with ready necks to the yokes prepared for them to go into a condition of bondage that will obliterate all the bright memories of the Past, and spread out the Future as a dark, limitless sea, without a ray to light up and gild the blackness of its wave. As surely as the redemptionless oligarchy, now revelling in the enjoyment of public plunder, and gloating over the prospect of more, shall succeed, just so sure will the death knell of freedom on this continent be rung, and our own Republic be added to the long list of others that have gone before. Already the once high-toned and elevated public feeling, which, fanned by the memory of the patriotism that wrested national independence from a tyranny less obnoxious than is now imposed, would have revolted at the mere idea of infraction of, or innovation upon the pure government bequeathed by our fathers, has in a great measure been toned down and almost prepared to receive a despotism, or anything promising to be less obnoxious and oppressive than that to which we are so rapidly and inevitably drifting. The elections are in our favor. Even the apparent certainty of successful impeachment did not help the Radicals to a triumph. They are desperate, and will use every plan and device to succeed; but it should be remembered that their success, although it may enable them to carry out their plans, which they have been so long systematizing, will be a double blow to enlightened civil government in this country, and will strike from the firmament the sun which so long had beamed to fructify human happiness.

To relieve the country from all financial embarrassment, the standing army should be cut down to a peace footing; the Freedmen's Bureau should be abolished; the South should be encouraged to bring back its capital from Europe, where it has been sent to save it from confiscation; Northern capital and Northern emigration should be invited to the South, that they may help pay the taxes; and when we view the terrible punishment which has been inflicted upon our people by the calamities of war, every Christian and humane heart should say, enough, enough! Put your finger upon any page of the world's history, and tell where a nation has prospered that has dealt severely with its insurgent citizens. Does the condition of Ireland or Poland furnish any encouragement? Wherever, on the contrary, the Roman Empire made equal citizens of the people of its captured provinces, there the people became reconciled, and were proud to be called Roman citizens. Such was the boast of the Great Apostle of the Gentiles. It was because captured Cilicia, in which he was born, was honored by the Roman government, and Tarsus was made a seat of science, literature and the arts. Contrast this conduct of the Pagan world with these Christian Radicals of the nineteenth century. Our white brethren are to be degraded by the political elevation of a servile or semi-barbarian race above them. The rights of the whites are transferred to the blacks, and the very foundations of the social fabric are thus utterly demoralized; and yet Radical leaders say they have not punished, and do not wish to punish severely the South. This is but adding insult to accumulated and insupportable injury. And all this wrong and outrage is done under the plea of public necessity—the plea of all tyrants. The South have in good faith, laid down their arms, and ask to be received back into the Union. But, say the Radical leaders, we cannot trust them. When, then, can you trust them? If they come back, they will unite with the copperheads of the North, and the Union men of the country will be exterminated—the rebel debt will be assured—our own debt repudiated—and slavery will be restored. These are the appeals of demagogues to the meanest passions of our nature. The party that has repudiated the Constitution, is in more danger of repudiating the national debt, than we are; and as to assuming the rebel debt, we think we shall have enough to do to pay our own, and that, we fear, will not be, under Radical legislation, till our young men have grown gray. To attempt to restore slavery in this country, would be like trying to make a dead horse trot three miles a minute. Such appeals can only influence the weakest minds, such as have been taught to believe the Radical party, as the only party worth success, because it put forth such extravagant claims of moral purity and even religious sanctity. As to admitting rebels to Congress, have not the Radicals already done it. They admitted WM. B. STOKES, of this State, to his seat in the House, though he confessed under his own hand that he had enlisted in the rebel army to "resist LINCOLN at the point of the bayonet," and he declared in the same letter, "that it was better to recognize the independence of the Southern Confederacy than to attempt to coerce them back!" This man is now advocating Radicalism. We blame not the Radicals for admitting him to his seat, so long as he was willing to take the oath. But why do they not admit Judge Sharkey to his seat in the Senate from Mississippi? He never was a rebel—but was under arrest for being a Union man. Yet after the war the rebels of Mississippi by a unanimous vote elected him to the Senate. He is refused admittance! Why? Simply because he is not a Radical, and because his State has not yet been reconstructed so as to give the negroes the control of it! The brave Colonel Johnson, of Arkansas, who followed the flag through the war, and shed his blood in its defense, was elected to the Senate from Arkansas. Yet he was denied admission. His State had not been placed under negro dominion. Do we wonder that he shed tears as he turned away and saw that flag which he loved floating over the dome of the Capitol, and which he had carried through so many battles, flaunted in his face as in the face of a traitor?

Fortieth Congress----First Session

WASHINGTON, April 10.

SENATE.

The Court opened at 12:15 p.m. Mr. Curtis opened by referring to the statement made by Mr. Butler, that the President's letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, notifying him of the suspension of Stanton, claimed that there was no jurisdiction of his authority under the Constitution. He read the letter and claimed that it did not specify under what authority the President acted.

The charges made in the second article were then discussed by Mr Curtis, who proceeded to argue that Stanton did not come within the provisions of the section alleged to be violated. He said the first section of the Tenure of Office act applies to removals and suspensions arrising from any cause, during a recess of the Senate, but the third section applies only to vacancies caused by death or resignation, and the penalties prescribed in the fifth section, were directed solely against violations of the third section, and the present case, he claimed, was outside of its provisions, and that the main charge was that the letter of authority was given without authority of law; then reading the act of 1795, he claimed that it applied to vacancies of all kinds, and the act of February 20, 1863, applied to vacancies arising from sickness and temporary inability, and only to that extent repealed the former, under which the President had full authority for the act referred to.

In reply to the charge made in the third article, that the designation of General Thomas as Secretary ad interim was in violation of the Constitution, Mr. Curtis cited the acts of 1792 and others, which authorized the temporary filling of vacancies, without making any distinction between vacancies occurring during a recess, and when the Senate is in session, and said the practice of the Government had been uniform in filling vacancies as soon as they occurred. He illustrated the frequent necessity of immediate action in such cases, by referring to the appointment of Hall in the place of Floyd by Buchanan. The eighth article, Mr. Curtis claimed, was met by his answer to the third, and he proceeded to consider the fourth. The charge made of appointing General Thomas, without the advice and consent of the Senate, could not be sustained, because no appointment was made. A simple appointment to act was not an appointment, and could not, of course, be submitted to the Senate. The allegation that no vacancy then existed, is the beginning of the question. The vacancy was created as soon as Mr. Stanton received the order removing him, and the vacancy could properly be contemplated by the President, at the time of his writing General Thomas the letter of authority.

Recapitulating his argument, Mr. Curtiss then claimed that he had shown that the managers could not maintain their charge of "violation of the Constitution and laws." He then proceeded to consider the various charges of conspiracy, and for this purpose he said he would take up the 4th, 5th, 6th, and 7th articles together. The 4th and 5th, which charged conspiracy between the President and General Thomas, to obtain by force and intimidation, possession of the War Office and Government property, are based on the Conspiracy act, which, by its terms, has no application to any person in the District of Columbia, for it speaks only of the States and Territories. But it was not necessary to rest the answer upon this technical ground. In a case of private right, he would deem the issue of authority to assert sufficient cause for charges of conspiracy. Still less could it be alleged for a public right. The order was based on the assumption of military subordination, and the superior and inferior officer to conspire because the latter obeyed orders given to him by the former. He said that it was also impossible to show that the President ever did directly, or by implication, give General Thomas authority to use force. On investigating the 5th and 7th articles would be answered by his argument against the 10th article. Mr. Curtis then claimed that the charge made in the 9th article, not only failed of proof, but was absolutely disproved by the testimony of General Emery, who swore to having introduced the subject in order to draw out the President. It would appear in the proof that the President sent for him for an entirely different purpose from that alleged in the article referred to. Advancing to the other, Mr. Curtis went into the question of what are impeachable offenses, and said he would not vex the ear of the Senate with precedents drawn from the middle ages, but would refer to the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, whose framers knew quite as much as the men who lived in the time of the Plantagenets, and made the subject so clear as to require no research beyond them. The language of the Constitution, he said, was to allow impeachment for treason, bribery and other high crimes and misdemeanors, which must be equally grave offenses, and be offenses againts the United States, for the President is elsewhere empowered to pardon all offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment. He recited various provisions relating to trials of impeachment, and claimed that it was fully shown that this tribunal was constituted for such purposes. A court was bound by law, and was not a law of itself. If it was not so, then there would be no provision forbidding the passage of bills of this nature.

The complaint made in the other article is, that the President spoke disrespectfully of Congress. It should have been said of the dominant majority, but the charge is brought forward in an extraordinary way; for the Grand Jury is one body of Congress, resolving itself into a school of manners. He then combatted the views put forward by Mr. Butler, and said that it was immaterial whether or not the alleged indecorous expressions were true. Quoting from the English Statutes, and the sedition laws passed during the Adams' administration, and reading from the writings of Madison passages in support of the position that telling the truth about officers of the Government is not an offense against the law. Mr. Curtis then asked who were to be the judges of propriety of speech. It was the assumption of this authority that had caused thousands of heads to fall in England, under the Tudors, and nearer our time, in France. It was the freedom of speech ordained by our Constitution that had made us a peaceful and happy nation.

He passed very briefly over the eleventh article, characterizing it as "a compound of the tenth," and proceeding, closed with a reference to the unprecedented magnitude and importance of the case, saying that there had not been, and never could be, another occasion like this in the proceedings of the Government to prove the greatness of American justice or injustice—that justice which Burke says is the crowning glory of all civilization, or that injustice which is sure to return to its authors.

The Senate at fifteen minutes past two o'clock took a recess of fifteen minutes, and after the recess General Thomas was sworn, and on examination by Stanbery testified that on the morning of the 21st he received a note from the private secretary of the President, asking him to come to the White House. He went, and the President handed him papers, the same being a letter to Stanton and his own letter of authority, which he had never seen before. Had no hand in preparing them. The President said to him: "I intend to support the Constitution and laws, and expect to do the same." Witness then went to the War Office with General Williams and demanded possession. Mr. Stanton asked if time would be granted for him to remove his papers. General Grant was present, and witness showed him his appointment as Secretary ad interim. Witness then retired to his room, and the same day received a letter from Mr. Stanton, forbidding him to issue any orders as Secretary of War ad interim, which the witness proceeded to read.

Mr. Stanbery: "What was said in a conversation between you and the President, subsequently, and on the same day?"

Mr. Butler objected to the question, and the Chief Justice then submitted to the Senate the question of admitting General Thomas' testimony regarding the conversation, and the ayes and nays resulted 42 to 10. So the evidence was admitted.

Witness stated to the President that he had delivered the communication to Mr. Stanton, and told him what answer had been made. The President then said to him, "Very well; go on, take possession and obey the order." This was all that occurred. Did not see the President again that evening. The next morning witness was arrested and went with the Marshall to the White House, and told the President that he was in custody, and on what charge. The President replied, "Very well, that's just where I want it, in court." Witness was then left at his hotel, on giving bail. He asked Justice Carter if he was in the meantime suspended from his functions, and the Judge replied in the negative, and explained the effect of giving bail.

Witness then narrated the circumstances and correspondence, after he went to the War office, and said that the same morning after the members of Congress who witnessed his interview with Stanton, had retired, he said to Stanton, "The next time you have me arrested, do it after breakfast, for I have had nothing this morning to eat or drink. [Laughter.] Stanton, in a playful way, said: "Well, I think, General, we have a little something here," whereupon General Schurz produced a bottle, and Stanton divided its contents—about a spoonful—into two parts, and we took a drink together. Subsequently some full bottles were brought, and this was all the force used that day. [Great laughter.]

WASHINGTON, April 8.

There is a rush for tickets for the trial to-morrow. Every one is eager to hear Judge Curtis.

He and Evarts are in consultation to-night, while Stanberry is at his own room, and declines to see any one. Others of the President's counsel are at the Executive Mansion arranging certain documentary evidence. Curtis will speak from three to four hours.

There exists some diversity of opinion as to the result of the trial, but the Radicals are making extraordinary efforts to apply the party lash to Senators. One of these to-day said an attempt had been made by political friends in his State to control his vote, but he quieted them by promptly replying that it should be cast in accordance with his conscientious conviction, but when Representatives, like Pollard, of Vermont, Spalding, of Ohio, and others, hitherto regarded as Conservatives, are urgently entreating Senators to vote for conviction, there are well-grounded apprehensions as to the verdict.

Mr. Robinson, of New York, offered a resolution in the House to-day to recall the managers with the impeachment bantling and rescind the whole proceedings. It was not taken up, a motion to adjourn carrying instantly. There was no quorum present and none in the city.

Serious apprehensions are felt by the Government authorities here concerning our Indian relations. Last year the Secretary of the Interior urged Congress to vote appropriations to enable the Indian Peace Commissioner to carry out the treaties with the Indians, but it was unheeded. The Commissioner made treaties with several war-like tribes, and now the time is near by when the payments are to be made, and still Congress has not provided the means. The Secretary to-day addressed Congress on the subject, and says if appropriations are not made, it is feared there will be another formidable and costly war.

An important debate occurred to-day in the Senate on a private bill reported on favorably by the committee to pay for the lands used by the Government for soldiers during the war.

Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, opposed it, saying if such a claims were admitted, the Government would have to pay many millions of a similar character.

Mr. Morton, of Indiana, warned the Senators that just private claims could not be repudiated in this manner; that if they were the next step would be toward repudiating the claims of the Eastern bondholders.

There are good reasons for denying the reported reconciliation between Butler and Grant. The lattur hates Grant with all the intent of a bottle imp, and Grant hates Butler with a malignity which is one of his chief characteristics.

The Jews, the world over, are noted for their kindness to their own people. In London they number about fifty-five thousand, the majority of whom are foreigners, and receive only a little aid to help them on their way to other countries. It is against Jewish principles to allow any of their poor to come upon the public.

There is to be a new edition of the Scriptures, termed the Chicago Bible. Its characteristic feature is an improved Family Record, suited to the growing wants of the West. In addition to the pages ordinarily devoted to births, marriages, and deaths, several leaves will be devoted to divorces

Brownlow has commissioned J. C. Lauck, Chancellor of the Seventh Chancellor Division, notwithstanding Judge Barry had made an application for an injunction on the ground of fraud.

A NEAT LITTLE SWINDLE.

How a Sharper Undertook to Furnish Employment.

Among the many evidences that Memphis is assuming metropolitan proportions is the constant introduction of swindles regarded as first class even in such ungodly places as Chicago and New York. These are being brought to light almost every day, and among the latest is one which was nipped in the bud yesterday. Two or three days ago the following advertisement was inserted in a city contemporary:

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—Twenty-five railroad hands, to go west; steady job and good pay. Also a steady young man to travel with an invalid. Also a steady young man who is not afraid of work, with a cash capital of $200, can hear of a good chance by calling at 152 Main street, between one and four o'clock. M. A. WATSON, 152 Main street.

N. B.—Those who accept situations must pay for advertising.

This nicely worded advertisement happened to meet the eye of detective Selkirk yesterday, who, thinking he "smelt a mice," resolved to investigate the matter. Entering a neat little office at No. 152, nearly opposite the Overton, he found "Mr. Watson," blandly conversing with ten or twelve anxious applicants for situations. Edging in rather unceremoniously, he attracted "Watson's" attention, and was greeted with a "well, sir, what can I do for you?" The detective explained that he was out of employment; wanted a situation of some kind; and had come in answer to the advertisement. "Watson" replied that he could "fix him off in no time," either as a companion, at five dollars per day, to an invalid who intended traveling through the United States and British Provinces; a ticket-taker for a minstrel show, at two hundred or two hundred and fifty dollars per month; or an overseer on some railroad. Selkirk intimated a desire to be overseer on the Pacific railroad. It was all arranged in a moment. He was to receive five dollars per day, come up on Tuesday, obtain passes to his destination, and be off on the afternoon train. "Watson" was of course acting disinterestedly in the matter, and would charge Selkirk only one dollar, to go toward paying for the advertisement.

During the conversation it was ascertained that forty or fifty men—clerks, laborers, mechanics, etc.—had already applied for situations, paid the required dollar, and left, to return Tuesday for their passes. Those present were conversing about the proposed change of base, and all seemed in high spirits at the prospect of permanent and remunerative employment "out West." One, a Main street ex-clerk, was to take tickets for a minstrel show, at two hundred and fifty dollars per month, and felt particularly jubilant.

The detective suddenly terminated the conversation by expressing an urgent desire to see "Mr. Watson" at police headquarters. This was a bombshell of extraordinary explosive qualities, but it could not be dodged. "Watson" left with the detective, and the applicant left with a large flea in each ear. Once before Colonel Beaumont, "Watson" confessed the swindle, but alleged that the advertising, office rent in advance, etc, had exhausted all the money obtained from the dupes except a few dollars that Selkirk had compelled him to return to those present on arrest. He was allowed until this morning in which to leave the city.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Feast of the Passover closed last night.

Bob Church (nig.) was yesterday fined $25 for assaulting another nig.

Stock lifting has been reduced to a science in the neighborhood of Galloway's station.

Yesterday detectives Selkirk and Garrett captured four mules and two thieves in the country.

The recent frosts have damaged growing vegetables considerably.

The police made a haul of four negroes Thursday night, for stealing corn sacks.

The Somerville Falcon complains of the failure of the Memphis mails. Whose fault is it?

The Fayette county jail is being so repaired that prisoners cannot escape, as heretofore.

The season of Lent closed to-day, which is "Easter Eve."

The burning out of a chimney on Poplar street caused the fire alarm yesterday forenoon.

Colonel Beaumont says he has not communicated with Brownlow relative to the late Ku Klux mare's nest.

The I.O.O.F. picnic has been postponed until the 30th instant. The grounds selected are James' Park, at the head of Vance street.

Ellen Lee was naughty enough to threaten the life of Johannah Walker, and has been required to give bonds in $500 to keep the peace.

J. J. Ford has had Wm. Bowley arrested by detective Connell, charged with defrauding him out of sixty dollars by the "case" game.

The Radical niggers of the city have designated T. A. Hamilton as their choice for Congressman at large.

The Front street snake and gift enterprise contraption has evaporated, thus saving the police the trouble of closing it up.

A frame house on the corner of Elliott and Hernando streets was fired about twelve o'clock Thursday night. The flames were speedily subdued.

We learn that Mr. Henry G. Smith will accept the Supreme Judgeship and proceed at once to Brownsville to assist in holding the April term of the Court.

Colonel W. Gates, the veteran editor of that staunch Conservative journal, the West Tennessee Whig, is in the city. The Whig is one of the ablest, most enterprising papers in the State, and has a large circulation, and extensive influence. Our merchants desiring to advertise in the tier of West Tennessee counties through which the Whig circulates, would do well to advertise in that journal.

Little Beecher's slumbers are constantly disturbed by so called Ku Klux orders, warning him to "walk not forth after the sun goes down." Aware of little Beecher's leading characteristics, "the boys," who doubtless have personal property of value in the vicinity, probably hope, by keeping the Onarga postmaster indoors at night, to prevent it from being spirited away. "Stratagem, my boys."

FRESH ARRIVAL.—Francisco & Wiggin, hatters, 309 Main street, have just received over fifty new styles of hats. 2t

ALLEGED REVENUE FRAUDS.

Collector Frank Travis Recalled—Argument Opened by Prosecution.

At three o'clock yesterday afternoon the investigation of the case of Mr. D. H. Evans, liquor dealer, for alleged frauds on the internal revenue was resumed before United States States Commissioner Morrison.

Mr. Frank Travis, Collector of the Seventh District, recalled—examination by Judge Perkins—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has recognized the validity of witness' action in other cases in taking a bond similar to that taken in this case; tobacco has been seized after having been removed from witness, district for nonpayment of tax, and has been released on a bond being given him for the tax; the Commissioner of Internal revenue decided that it was correct; this is the only case of whisky having been removed under these circumstances.

Upon the conclusion of Mr. Travis' testimony, Mr. B. N. Hart opened the argument on behalf of the prosecution, speaking until the hour of adjournment. He read the sections of the internal revenue law on which the government expected to convict Mr. Evans, and dwelt at some length upon Mr. Smith's testimony, which he deemed unimpeachable, and tallying with that of all the other witnesses, and of necessity, compelling the Commissioner to bind the defendant over to the Supreme Court. He took the ground that Mr. Evans, when receiving this whisky, was aware that the taxes had not been paid. His argument evidenced familiarity with the subject, and in point of ability was quite creditable in every way.

We presume Judge Perkins will commence his argument for the defense at three o'clock this afternoon.

Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners.

It was ordered on Thursday last that a new issue of bonds formerly issued to the German Savings Institution, be made.

A petition from Mrs. M. Merriwether to have the name of Waldran avenue changed, was presented and will be entertained on the 13th.

The following appropriations were made: George Johnson, $140; W & G Stewart, $60; Joseph Walter & Co, $213 25; C F Chamberlin & Co, $2,052 43; $100 to County Clerk to purchase Codes; J D Davis, $500; M T Williamson, $400; Wolcott, Smith & Co, $600; J W Taylor & Co, $115; Wheeler, Pickens & Co, $65; James Dumars, $532 50; Sears & Smith, $25; E B Harrell, $295; John Mageveny, $1,018 99; Owen Smith, $100; O F Prescott, $52 24; R J Freeman, $5; Korte & McDonough, $20 07; Joseph, Tagg, $115 53; J S Black, $54 80; H Welter & Co, $49 50; F Kies, $262 60; G W Rogers, $15.

The resignation of A. C. Perkins, as overseer, was accepted. Henry Hill was appointed to the vacancy.

MR. MULLALY'S LECTURE.—By the report of the committee below, it will be seen that the New Memphis Theater has been procured for the lecture of Mr. Mullaly on Monday evening next, and we doubt not the spacious auditorium of the establishment will be filled to overflowing. [CONTINUED FROM YESTERDAY.]

SPECIAL COMMITTE.

Upon the matter of draining the pond in South Memphis, the Committee submit the following report and ordinance, and the report was adopted and the ordinance passed first reading:

WHEREAS That section of the city lying between Main and Shelby streets, on the east and west, and Beal and Linden streets on the north and south, embrace a low marshy pond, at all times covered to some extent with water, and which endangers the health of the city, particularly that contiguous to said location; and,

WHEREAS It is necessary that said pond should be drained; and, Whereas, by report of the City Engineer, the expenses of said drainage will amount to nineteen hundred dollars;

Therefore be it ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, of the City of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That said pond between Main and Shelby streets on the east and west, and Beal and Linden streets on the north and south is a nuisance; and that the property owners covering the ground embraced in the above limits be required, at their own expense, to drain said pond within the next sixty days.

SEC. 2. Should said property owners fail to perform said drainage within the time specified, the Engineer shall make out plans for the drainage of the same, which work shall be let out by contract to the lowest bidder, and the price of the same shall be charged against said property, according to the value of the same upon the tax books. Said assessments, when so made, shall be placed in the hands of the contractor for payment by said property owners; and upon refusal or failure to pay the same, suit shall be brought for said assessments.

PETITIONS.

By Alderman Glancy:

MEMPHIS, April 1, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: I respectfully petition and ask of your honorable body permission to erect a frame building on lot No. 298, southwest corner of Second and Auction streets. By doing so you will not endanger the property of other parties, and much oblige your very humble petitioner,

T. KEELY.

MEMPHIS, March 3, 1868.

By Alderman Johnson:

Hon Board of Mayor and Aldermen of City of Memphis:

Your petitioners respectfully ask that the City Engineer be instructed to establish the grade of the streets and alleys on the "Overton Tract." As permanent improvements are being made on said tract, it is especially necessary that the grade should be established at once, so that difficulty may be avoided in the future.

Respectfully submitted,
JNO. OVERTON, JR.
JAMES F. BARTON.

Referred to City Engineer.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD,
MEMPHIS, March 17, 1868.

To the Hon. J. W. Leftwich, Mayor of Memphis:

DEAR SIR—In view of bringing about a union of interest of the three railroads now entering the city, and the city itself, resulting in the construction of a permanent and suitable sewer on bayou Gayoso, and in a junction of all the roads within the limits of the corporation, I beg to suggest that the City Water Works Engineer, who, I am informed has all the necessary data, be requested, in connection with the Chief Engineers of the railroads and the City Engineer, to submit a plan and estimate of the construction of a sewer on the bayou, from a point near the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad to the Memphis and Ohio railroad, to be covered with earth and graded for one or two railroad tracks that shall pass under most of the streets that cross the bayou, and thus furnish an unobstructed railway through the city and a connection of all the roads with each other. I believe that such a combination would result in great benefit to the city and to the railroads.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
SAM. TATE, President.

Referred to Mayor and City Engineer.

By the same:

MEMPHIS, March 30, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: The undersigned employes of the Water Works Commissioners respectfully request that you order the payment of the rolls remaining from December 15th to March 1st, 1868.

When engaged in the survey ordered by the Waterworks Commissioners, our wages were to have been paid in cash each month. Our labors have been ended for several weeks, our necessities are pressing, and some of us are in actual need of the money due us.

CITY OF MEMPHIS, STATE OF TENNESSEE:

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

The petition of R. P. Walt & Co. respectfully shows that heretofore, to-wit: in pursuance of directions given by the honorable Mayor and Aldermen, to Mr. J. P. Foster, their Purveyor, your petitioners sold to said Purveyor for the use and benefit of the city, corn, hay and oats at current cash rates for par funds, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of four hundred and forty-one dollars and sixty-five cents, and for which your petitioners were to receive city scrip at its then market value, and your petitioners aver that city scrip was then worth forty cents on the dollar, and that for their debt against the city they are entitled to eleven hundred and four dollars and twelve cents in scrip, in pursuance of the agreement made with your Purveyor, who contracted under competent authority to give such instructions. Wherefore, your petitioners pray that the City Controller be instructed to issue to your petitioner in city scrip the amount required to make up the above sum and your petitioners will ever pray, etc.

R. P. WALT & CO.

Referred to Committee on Claims and City Attorney.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Memphis, Tennessee:

I, J. P. Foster, City Purveyor from January, 1867, to January, 1868, being duly authorized to make contracts for feed, and in the month of October, 1867, I made a contract with R. P. Walt & Co. to furnish the city teams with feed, the terms of said contract being that said Walt & Co. should furnish the feed at the lowest cash prices, (which they did,) and were to receive cash or its equivalent in scrip, at the first meeting of the Board in November.

J. P. FOSTER.

By Alderman Black:

MEMPHIS, April 6, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Memphis:

The undersigned wishes to replace the shingle roof on his house on Adams street, below Fourth, and respectfully requests your honorable Board to grant permission to do the same, and your petitioner will ever pray.

R. S. JONES.

Granted.

By the same:

MEMPHIS, April 7, 1868.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN: The undersigned respectfully represent that they are grading their lots fronting on Jefferson street, east of Fourth, and running back to the alley. When these lots are graded, which will be immediately, the alley to which they run will be left as an embankment some twelve feet high, rendering it useless to the contiguous property and dangerous to the life and limbs of passers. We would therefore ask that you instruct the Street Commissioner to grade said alley to proper grade.

JOHN OVERTON, JR.,

Referred to Improvement Committee.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather clear and cool. The river here is falling slowly. At St. Louis the river is rising, the rise being from the Mississippi. The upper Mississippi was rising at Dubuque. At Cairo the river is declining at the rate of two and a half inches every twenty-four hours. The Ohio at Pittsburg was stationary Thursday, with seven feet in the channel. At Cincinnati the river was rising slowly, with nineteen feet in the channel. At Louisville the river was falling, with seven feet in the canal and five and a half feet water on the falls. The lower Ohio is falling, with a fair stage of water. White river is declining, with twelve feet in the channel to Augusta. The Arkansas is receding, with three feet in the channel from Little Rock to the mouth, and seventeen inches above from Little Rock to Fort Smith.

MISCELLANEOUS.

GREAT CONFLAGRATION AMONG THE SHIPPING AT NEW ORLEANS—SEVERAL STEAMERS BURNED.—In our telegraph column will be found the full particulars of the burning of the Southerner, and damaging of several other steamers.

The levee presented a dull appearance yesterday, with little movement in freights. Even the black brigade deserted the wharf, there being nothing they could steal.

The Julia, Norman and Silver Spray passed up yesterday, and the Mississippi passed down for New Orleans, well loaded.

The elegant United States mail passenger steamer Liberty No. 2, in command of Captain John Davis, leaves to-day at five p.m. for White river, through to Jacksonport, connecting there with the Fairy Queen for Batesville and points above. She also makes close connection at Duvall's Bluff with the Little Rock railroad for points on the Arkansas. Milt. Harry and Charley Sharpe, two amiable and clever gentlemen, are her clerks.

The Lexington, Captain Hambleton, is advertised for Vicksburg at five p.m.

When the Belle Lee left here the last trip to outrun the R. E. Lee, Captain McGill was as confident of winning the race as Thad. Stevens is of convicting Andrew Johnson. The object of the trip, it seems, was more to beat the Bob Lee than to carry freight and passengers. Bets were freely taken along the river, the R. E. Lee being the favorite. When the two boats left New Orleans Tuesday evening, a crowd of ten thousand or so was on the levee to witness the start. From all accounts they got off well, until the Bob Lee come the "circle" a time or two on the Belle Lee, when Captain Mc. concluded not to run the race, and decided that he had not been running, which was almost the fact. The following dispatch gives the time of both to Natchez:

"NATCHEZ, April 8.

"Steamer Robert E. Lee, from New Orleans to Natchez in nineteen hours and nineteen minutes; made seven landings and took on seventy-seven cords of wood. Belle Lee two hours and five minutes behind.

"(Signed) R. HOLMES."

The above time, considering a river bank full and a fearful current to contend against, is extraordinary.

When the Belle arrived here yesterday at three o'clock, she had been out two days and twenty-two hours; pretty fair time, considering the Belle was not running a race; oh, no, not at all. Capt. McGill said that his doctor broke down, but as we did not go aboard to examine, we do not know what doctor he meant. He says now that he can beat the Bob. Lee two months hence. Well, nobody can dispute that, but the principal proof of the pudding, and by far the most satisfactory, is the eating thereof.

The mammoth low pressure passenger steamer Richmond, Captain Stut Neal, will leave the wharf to-day at five p.m. for New Orleans. She has unsurpassed passenger accommodations. Captain J. S. Wolfolk and Bob Lodge, two affable and clever gentlemen, have charge of the office.

The Rubicon has gone on the docks at St. Louis.

The Mollie Able was to have left St. Louis today, for New Orleans.

The Henry Ames and Olive Branch are due from New Orleans.

The Mary Erwin is due from the Ohio, en route for Arkansas.

The Minneola left Cincinnati Thursday evening for Memphis.

The superb passenger steamer Silver Moon, Captain Merrillees, will leave the wharf to-day at five p.m. for Cairo and Cincinnati. Captain Lawrence Carter, an attentive and amiable gentleman, does the honors of the office.

The Belle St. Louis, Captain Zeigler, is up for St. Louis at five p.m. Captain Ad. Storm is her chief purser.

Business at St. Louis is improving, with freights offering freely for all points. The Minnie was to have left there for the Arkansas yesterday, with 100 tons Government freight.

The city authorities, through our efficient wharfmaster, has ordered the wharf-boats to leave the wharf by twelve m. to-day. Captain Good will execute the order promptly. If the wharf-boats are removed we will have regular packets making their terminus here, which will be identified with the interests of Memphis. The many storehouses which are now vacant on Front street can be rented for storage purposes. Money will be put in circulation, and the various branches of trade will be benefitted by the removal. The commission merchants, who are paying large rents and heavy taxes, will get a share of the business which has been passing through the wharfboats from other ports. We can then maintain our regular packets in the New Orleans and Vicksburg, and Arkansas river trade. Boats that make this port their terminus are beneficial to all branches of trade, and help to build up our commerce, while the through boats are continually drawing money away from us, and crippling our commercial interests.

We have been informed that the St. Louis Packet Company, whose interests are identified with St. Louis and not Memphis, have resolved not to move, and will "fight it out on this line, if it takes all summer." They have threatened to use force in preventing the city authorities from moving their boat. Thus it is that a St. Louis company defies our city authorities.

The Mayflower came down yesterday from Evansville, bringing a nigger loving, Radical brass band, whose members celebrated their advent by getting drunk and serenading several of the meanest carpet baggers in the city. The noise was fearful, and several passengers for Evansville, satisfied that listening to it fifteen minutes would cause any man to scalp his grandmother, shipped on other boats. Captain Josh would do well to blow his own horn after this. We know of seven passengers who designed taking passage for Evansville on her, but preferred to wait for the Silver Moon rather than travel in company with such galoots.

Mr. Stanbery then asked if the President had ever directed him to use force or threats to obtain possession of the War Department.

Objection was made, and argued by Butler and Evarts, and, without a division, the Senate allowed the question to be put, and Thomas replied in the negative.

When questioned as to his conversation with Burleigh, he said he never invited him to come to his office; had not said to him or Wilkinson that he would "cotton" General Grant, or kick the door down; knows nothing about Karsner (the spy); supposes that he may have seen him four years ago, when he was ill, at home; Karsner introduced himself as an old acquaintance, and hung on to him by the hand, while he made the remark, several times repeated, about Deleware having her eyes upon him (Thomas); Karsner asked him when he was going to kick that fellow out, and he adopted Karsner's words, and said he would do it in a very few days; had never thought about kicking Stanton out.

After a cross examination, the Court adjourned.

The Frank Pargoud leaves New Orleans on the 18th, bound for this port. She will make weekly trips in the Memphis and New Orleans trade, leaving here every Saturday.

The Government snag boat J. J. Abbert, Captain W. B. Dodson commanding, has commenced the work of cleaning the Mississippi river of dangerous snags. Her machinery has been put to a severe practical test and is found to be admirably adapted to the service for which she is designed. The Abbert, since Saturday, March 23d, has been working in Abell's and Dog Tooth bends, just above Cairo, and, on Saturday, April 4th, reported, as the result of the first seven days' work, sixteen large and dangerous snags removed from the channel. The two largest snags measured as follows: one sycamore, 80 feet long, circumference at butt 16 feet, and at top 12½ feet, estimated weight, 45 tuns; one cottonwood, 120 feet long, circumference at butt 14 7-12 feet, and at top, 8½ feet, estimated weight, 50 tuns.

The Little Rock Gazette of the 7th has the following:

River on a stand, with three feet in the channel to the mouth, and about twenty inches to Fort Smith. From all indications we may look for another low river. The boats already are experiencing a great deal of trouble in getting up. Boats have been on Fourche bar, six miles below the city, for several days. The M. Burns, from St. Louis, and Celeste, from Memphis, succeeded in getting up after considerable trouble. The Tahlequah, from Cincinnati, is now on the same bar, and intends lighting over and will reach here today sometime.

The American went out last night for above, Captain Morton in command. She will assist the Ozark to get off the bar at Beaver Dam. She is expected down to-day.

The M. Burns left for Fort Smith to day. She will not be able to get up on this water.

The Caroline is aground at Portland, and will probably remain there until a rise in the river.

Below we publish the statement of the Memphis and Louisville railroad for the present cotton season to the 1st of April. It will be seen that the interests of our city have not been neglected by the officers of the road. As there has been some comment upon the manner in which the officers of the road have managed its affairs in reference to the staple, and the welfare of our city, we hope that the plain statement annexed will cause our citizens to award to the President, Amos Woodruff, Esq., Colonel Sam. B. Jones, Superintendent, and the other officers of the road, that praise which they so richly deserve.

The following is a correct statement of the amount of bales of cotton transported by the Memphis and Louisville railroad line for the season, ending April 1st, showing the amount shipped each month, and from what station, and which direction. It will be observed that while 33,805 bales came to Memphis, only 959 bales were shipped North from the local stations on the road, which is an excess of nearly 5,000 bales of same time last season.

Total amount of bales shipped north of Paris, for the same season:

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A cough, a cold or a sore throat requires immediate attention and should be checked. If allowed to continue, irritation of the lungs, a permanent throat disease or consumption is often the result. Brown's Bronchial Troches, having a direct influence to the parts, give immediate relief. For bronchitis, asthma, catarrh, consumptive and throat diseases, Troches are used with always good success. Singers and public speakers use them to clear and strengthen the voice. Obtain only "Brown's Bronchial Troches," and do not take any of the worthless imitations that may be offered. Sold everywhere. sodsm

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething, greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation; will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in confidence and truth of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance to affect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its medical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we know," after years of experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfillment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Price only thirty-five cents per bottle. Offices—215 Fulton street, New York; 205 High Holborn, London, England; 341 St. Paul street, Montreal, Canada.

DASHER sent to any address on receipt of price.

Price everywhere invariably Three Dollars Cash.

The FINLEY CHURN DASHER is simple, cheap, popular.

The old Dasher BREAKS or SLASHES the cream to pieces.

The FINLEY DASHER CUTS the cream to pieces.

The old Dasher makes but TWO agitations of the cream at each up and down motion.

The FINLEY DASHER makes from TEN to FIFTEEN agitations at each up and down motion.

The old Dasher CANNOT supply the requisite amount of air

The FINLEY DASHER DOES introduce large and constant supplies of fresh air.

The old Dasher leaves from ONE-FOURTH to ONE-THIRD of the butter in the cream, because it CANNOT remove it.

The FINLEY DASHER takes ALL the butter out of the cream, and therefore ONE-FOURTH to ONE-THIRD more than the old Dasher.

The old Dasher requires the hard work of a HALF to ONE HOUR. The FINLEY DASHER WILL DO THE SAME WORK in from FIVE to FIFTEEN minutes.

The old Dasher consumes TWENTY to TWENTY-SIX HOURS EACH MONTH in churning. The FINLEY DASHER does the same work in LESS THAN FIVE HOURS and with GAIN in QUANTITY of butter sufficient to buy TWO FINLEY DASHERS at three dollars each.

The FINLEY DASHER can be SO EASILY CLEANED—made "bright as a spoon," and WILL RETAIN ITS SWEETNESS so essential to good milk and butter.

The FINLEY DASHER gives to the butter a decidedly firm, "waxy," "grainy" appearance—better for table, with more in the market.

The FINLEY DASHER, in the latter respect, has the advantage over all Crank or Rotary Churns—THEY TAKE THE GRAIN OUT OF THE BUTTER AND LEAVE IT LARD.

The FINLEY DASHER will last a life time if not abused.

The FINLEY DASHER is adapted to "old fashioned churns."

ANY ONE can use the FINLEY DASHER—so simple.

The FINLEY DASHER is being used over the greater portion of Middle and West Tennessee, North and Central Mississippi, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Alabama, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Illinois, Ohio and Western New York, with the very greatest satisfaction.
